Dear Mr. Jon Rubo,

Our maintenance shops have been using the product, Ultraseal, since 2002. Collectively, we service a fleet of just under four hundred vehicles (mostly Ford). Ultraseal has been an absolute asset to our operation. In the past six years, I have noticed that we've had a significant decrease in tire blow outs and towing service bills relating to tire issues. In addition, the overall quality of the tires has improved so we're also saving money on new tires, and vehicle down time since the tires don't have to be replaced as frequently.

I would recommend Ultraseal to anyone. It is a great product that we will continue to invest in for years to come.
